- Gymnasts with long hair must have their hair tied back prior to their class commencing.
- No jewellery, watches, piercings to be worn in the gym – wearing these will invalidate personal insurance.
- Olympus Gymnastics club will not take responsibility for any lost or stolen items.
- Any items left on the premises will be put in the lost property bins; these will be cleared out once a month.
- All Children under the age of 8 in our recreational classes must have a parent/guardian waiting on the premises at all times.
- Parents and guardians are not permitted in the gym for safety reasons and are also not permitted in the parents viewing area until Government regulations regarding social distance and everything regarding covid has been eased or lifted (This will be reviewed regularly)
- Please make sure you have read our Covid-19 Safety Measures and Procedures.

Monthly Fees

- Fees should be paid by the 7th of every month. Late fees will incur a £5 late charge which will be added to monthly fees.
- In accepting a place in the clubs' gymnastics classes, you are committed to one whole month.
- Fees are calculated on a 48-week year and are divided over a 12-month period. Therefore, the club can cancel up to 4 sessions per year without offering a replacement session.
- Olympus Gymnastics Club does not offer refunds, make up or offer additional classes which have been missed. We do stay open over the Summer holidays. If you decide to go away during the summer holidays you must still pay fees in order to keep your child's place open, failure to keep up with payments will mean your child will lose their place in their session.
- OGC Ltd. Aim to keep the cost of classes as low as possible, bad debtors' cost the club money. However, if you have an issue paying, please contact the Club Manager who will endeavor to help you.
- If you choose to leave before the end of the month Olympus Gymnastics Club Ltd. Will not refund your fees.
- If you decide to leave us, it is your responsibility to cancel your standing order with us, as we are unable to do so. Failure to cancel your standing order will result in no refunds.
